Dedicated to the spirit and vibrant memory of Jordan Sprague, eldest son of Rob and Lisa Sprague and big brother to Kate, Jack, Rose, Chad and Sean, the Jordan Sprague Life Shines Fund was created in 2011 after the tragic loss of Jordan to suicide in July 2010. A student at Rutgers University, his star was rising at the age of 19 but suicide prevented him from experiencing all of his tomorrows.

We are reaching out to several respected local businesses requesting a silent auction donation for The Jordan Sprague Life Shines Fund Freedom to Live Gala III that will be a major focus of our March 5, 2016 benefit at the Princeton Elks Lodge in Skillman, NJ, which will benefit Samaritans Suicide Prevention Center.

With more Americans dying from suicide than auto accidents, we recognize that everyone at some point in their life feels depressed or overwhelmed, experiences a traumatic loss or event and has trouble coping with the challenges they face just getting through another day. The Jordan Sprague Life Shines Fund was established to help people who are suffering or in despair, and the funds we donate to Samaritans will go towards their 24-hour suicide hotline, support groups for those touched by suicide and education programs that teach suicide signs to educators.

We plan to offer some amazing items to our 200 guests at the Silent Auction and hope to include a donation of a product, service or gift certificate from your business as well. Your name and business will be prominently featured in the Gala Program as well as the Gala Webpage <https://samaritansnyc.ejoinme.org/gala2016>

Proceeds will benefit

SUICIDE PREVENTION CENTER

Please support this important cause by filling out the enclosed "Auction Donation" form (which includes our Tax ID number) and return it with your donation. Feel free to call Linda anytime at (609) 333-8593 with any questions and to arrange collection of your donated auction item. We thank you in advance for your consideration.

Sincerely,
